	Locus Ave Stop Sign: Several selective enforcements were conducted in the area with violators being identified, stopped and cited. United Health Care placed road closure signs in parking lot greatly reducing the traffic passing through Locus Avenue.
Community Concerns	Golfview Park - loitering, vehicles, trash, lighting issues – City Parks & Rec will be contacted. Request made for additional patrol checks. Loud cars (modified mufflers, music, motorcycles etc) – Per FPD to enforce/ticket must be an “observable offense” and are measured as “audible greater than 50ft”. NAC members asked if [property] owners are notified of issues/complaints and whether different jurisdictions communicate? – Per FPD consistent complaints go into a database and can be shared by coordinating jurisdictions. Owners are notified after several issues/complaints; based on frequency [of calls] not severity [of calls].

ENGINEERING – Terre Butler, City of Frederick

Terre was on hand to discuss Iglesias Evangelica Palabra Viva Forest Conservation Plan. Required by City Land Management Code. Fee in Lieu not paid, developer is now required to mitigate .36 acres. This is not new, just Forest Conservation portion. Hearing will be May 13 with City Planning. No questions from NAC members except: Will there be ingress or egress along Hillcrest? Answer was no.

LUCHPO ANNEX – Bruce Dean, Linowes and Blocher LLP and Chris Smariga, Harris, Smariga & Associates

Property located next to WFMD/Grove Hill Road. Zoning R8, 8.52 acres. Annex = asking to extend City boundaries to include this parcel. Radio Station is not included (or interested) in annexation. Still need approval by Mayor and Board. Property was already in tier II annex area (City Plan). Sewer/water already available. Water to come from “other side” and will not increase post development. Residents concerned about well contamination. Home development is 3-4 years out (estimate). Residents also concerned about impact to schools, traffic. Notifications will go out to adjacent properties, NAC coordinators, radio station, as well as signage regarding hearing dates and times.
